

Please Help Us To Help You | Dental Charges

Send us the correct evidence that applies to you, so that we can confirm your entitlement promptly

You are entitled to free NHS dental treatment if:	The evidence you must send is:	Alternatives:
You are under 18 years of age.	A copy of documentation with your date of birth on it such as your NHS Medical Card, your passport, or your birth certificate.
You are aged 18 and in full-time education.	Please send proof that you are a full-time student e.g. a copy of a letter from your school or college.
You are pregnant or have had a baby in the last 12 months.	A copy of a valid Maternity Exemption Certificate.	If you do not have a valid Maternity Exemption Certificate, contact your GP or send a copy of your baby's birth certificate.
If you qualify under one of the following categories:	The evidence you must send is:	Alternatives:
You are named on a HC2 certificate under the NHS Low Income Scheme.	A copy of an HC2 certificate which covers the date we require.	If you cannot find your certificate, you can contact the agency which issues the certificates on 0300 330 1343 to check your position.
You receive or are included in your partner's award of Pension Credit Guaranteed Credit .	A copy of the page from your award letter showing your payment includes Guaranteed Credit , and confirmation that you are included in the award.	If you do not have any paperwork for the date we require, provided you are the claimant, and you are sure you receive Pension Credit Guarantee Credit , you can telephone the Pension Service Helpline on 0345 6060 265 for a copy of your award letter.
You receive or are included in your partner's award of Income Support .	A copy of your full award letter from your Jobcentre Plus showing you received Income Support on the date we require, or a copy of a letter showing that you are included in your partner's award on the date we require.	If you do not have any paperwork for the date we require, provided you are the claimant, and you are sure you receive Income Support , you can telephone your Jobcentre Plus Office or the Department for Work & Pensions and request a copy of your award letter.
You receive or are included in your partner's award of Income-based Jobseeker's Allowance .	A copy of your full award letter from your Jobcentre Plus showing you received Income-based Jobseeker's Allowance on the date we require, or a copy of a letter showing that you are included in your partner's award on the date we require.	If you do not have any paperwork for the date we require, provided you are the claimant, and you are sure you receive Income-based Jobseeker's Allowance , you can telephone your Jobcentre Plus Office or the Department for Work & Pensions and request a copy of your award letter.

You receive or are included in an award of Universal Credit. To establish if your Universal Credit (Take Home Pay) is WITHIN the monthly income threshold, please visit our website http://www.cfs.scot.nhs.uk/nhs-charges/universal-credit.aspx 2016 thresholds are: 1) £435 - no or net earnings of this value or less or 2) £935 - if you have a child and/or limited capability for work element and no or net earnings of this value or less. These thresholds are subject to change. Please check with your dentist.	If you qualify under one of these thresholds, send a copy of your full award letter (i.e. all pages) from your Jobcentre Plus showing you received Universal Credit on the date we require, or a copy of a letter (all pages) showing that you are included in your partner's award on the date we require.	If you do not have any paperwork for the date we require, provided you are the claimant, and you are sure you receive Universal Credit, you can telephone your Jobcentre Plus Office or the Department for Work & Pensions and request a copy of your award letter.
You receive or are included in your partner's award of Income-related Employment and Support Allowance.	A copy of your full award letter from your Jobcentre Plus showing you received Income-related Employment and Support Allowance on the date we require, or a copy of a letter showing that you are included in your partner's award on the date we require.	If you do not have any paperwork for the date we require, provided you are the claimant, and you are sure you receive Income-related Employment and Support Allowance, you can telephone your Jobcentre Plus Office or the Department for Work & Pensions and request a copy of your award letter.
You are entitled to or named on a valid NHS Tax Credit Exemption Certificate.	A copy of a valid NHS Tax Credit Exemption Certificate with your name on it.	If you cannot find your exemption certificate, contact 0300 330 1347.
You are entitled to limited help with the cost of your dental treatment if:	The evidence you must send is:	Alternatives:
You are named on a current HC3 certificate under the NHS Low Income Scheme.	A copy of a valid HC3 certificate with your name on it.	If you cannot find your certificate you can contact the agency which issues the certificates on 0300 330 1343 to check your position.

You are not entitled to help with the cost of your dental treatment if:

You or your partner only receive Pension Credit Savings Credit.

You or your partner only receive Contribution-based Jobseeker's Allowance.

You or your partner only receive Incapacity Benefit, Disability Living Allowance or Personal Independence Payment.

You or your partner only receive Contribution-based Employment and Support Allowance.